RESERVE BANK OF INDIA

(Exchange Control Department)

(Central Office)

Bombay, the 29th June 1965

G.S.R. 940.—In pursuance of sub-section (1) of section 5 and sub-section (3) of section 20 of the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947 (7 of 1947), the Reserve Bank of India hereby directs that—

(a) the provisions of the said sub-section (1) of section 5 shall not apply to any person, not being an authorised dealer, in respect of any payment through an authorised dealer, for import of any goods into India, shipped on or after the 1st July 1965, if that person complies with the following conditions, namely:—

(i) that he deposits with the authorised dealer, in a special account to be opened for the purpose, an amount equivalent to twentyfive per cent of the value of the goods shipped for such import;

(ii) that he deposits the amount in respect of every shipment as aforesaid, on or before the date of the bill of lading or other such document evidencing the shipment of goods for import into India, provided that where the said date falls within a period of one week from the 1st July 1965, he shall deposit the said amount on or before the 15th July 1965;

(b) the shipping documents shall not be released or made over by any authorised dealer to an importer unless a deposit has been made in the manner aforesaid;

(c) the amount in deposit shall be returned to the depositor by the authorised dealer with interest at such rate as the Reserve Bank may by general or special order direct from the date on which the deposit is made to the date on which it is returned;

(d) subject to any general or special order which the Reserve Bank of India may issue in respect of any class of imports the amount of the deposit shall not be returned to the depositor, until.

(i) the date on which the final remittance in respect of the import covered by the relevant shipment is made, or

(ii) the expiry of a period of two months from the date on which the deposit is made, or

(iii) the submission of such documents relating to the import as may be specified by the Reserve Bank of India from time to time; whichever is latest.

Explanation:

In this notification—

(1) 'shipment' with all its grammatical variations shall include despatch by sea, land or air;

(2) 'value' means the cost of the goods together with charges on account of insurance and freight.

2. Nothing contained in this notification shall be applicable to, or in relation to, the imports specified below, namely:—

(a) any import by or on behalf of the Central Government or a State Government;

(b) any import as passenger's baggage to the extent admissible under the Passengers (Non-Tourist) Baggage Rules or the Tourist Baggage Rules for the time being in force;

(c) any import by or on behalf of diplomatic and consular officers in India or by or on behalf of the officials of the United Nations and its specialised agencies who are entitled to any privileges or immunities under the United Nations (Privileges and Immunities) Act, 1947;

(d) any import for transmission across India to any country outside India;

(e) any import under a licence issued by His Majesty's Government of Nepal;

(f) any import under an import licence the total value of which is less than five thousand rupees;

(g) any other import in respect of which the Reserve Bank of India by general or special order has directed otherwise.
